1. JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS. The Central Committee expect to collect 8 to 10 lakhs of rupees by way of subscriptions. The collection should be made through the local Committees but the Deputy Commissioners may help the Committee in collecting subscriptions and they should particularly see that adequate arrangements are made by the Committee to keep proper accounts of the amounts received and spent by them.

The Central Committee should give to the Deputy Commissioners an idea of the form which the general memorial will take and of the proportion of the local subscriptions which may be set apart for this purpose.

As regards the local memorial, one suitable form will be the planting of a "JUBILEE TOPE" in each village. The tope may be started with 44 trees to signify that the Jubilee celebrations took place after the 44th Birthday of His Highness the Maharaja and one tree may be added each year thereafter till the tope is complete.

Local celebrations may take the form of feeding the poor, worship in temples, sports for children, illumination etc. Municipalities may spend money for local memorials but there will be no contribution from this source to the Central Fund.
